We've pretty much seen the country by van, and motorcycle. When the kids were little, Marilyn and I were determined that they would see the country coast to coast, and they did. We may have actually overdone it a bit, especially on our great northwestern trip. We hit ten national parks, and as we entered Yosemite, the crowned jewel, I excitedly asked what the kids thought. I'll never forget their response: "More rocks and trees!"

After the kids flew the coop, Marilyn and I saw it all again, and more, from the seat of a motorcycle. Marilyn even enjoyed the mountains a lot better from a motorcycle, because she could see the edge of the road and didn't think we were going over it. Our last big trip was our northeast trip four years ago that included Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, and the Gaspé Peninsula of Quebec. That was without a doubt Marilyn's favorite trip, and probably our last. Our last motorcycle trip, that is.

Having seen most of the natural and many of the historical sites our country has to offer, Marilyn started talking about wanting to see the historical sites of Europe. Seeing it on motorcycle sounded good to me, but Marilyn thought a river cruise, like Jonathan and Jeni just back from, sounded better. We thought about it, but it never got off the back burner.

Things changed when a good friend from Fit Club and I were fishing. He had talked about going to London to see the Yankees play for several years. That obviously made no sense to me, but London is in Europe. At least I think it still is. And when he told me he had found a 17 day tour of Europe that would begin in London the same day the Yankees played, I asked for more details.

It didn't take long to convince Marilyn that a bus, I mean a luxury coach, would be almost as good as a river boat, so by the time you get this we should be on our way. No, we're not going to the ball game, but Lord willing we will see lots of historical sites in eight different countries.

Mark will be preaching for the next three Sundays, and we'll see you on the 21st.

God Bless, Rick

The summer camping season is off to a great start! Feedback from those attending the High School and Niners Camp has been nothing but positive on the substance of the week. Since there is no paper for the next two weeks, below is a list of students attending camp in July. Please continue to pray for them as they deepen their relationship with Christ.

- Explorers: June 30-July 3
Amelia Sperry
- First Chance Camp: July 5-6
Kiayla Blakley
- Trailblazers: July 14-17
Tristyn Johnson, Levi Hunley,
Caleb Luzio, & Micaiah Blakley
- Day Camp: July 18
Clark Cantrell
- Hello Camp 2: July 19
Elizabeth & Levi Donaldson

Come on out and fellowship with us on Wednesday, July 3rd to either play or watch some Ultimate Frisbee! It might not be pretty, as most of us haven't played for awhile and can't run nearly as fast as we did five years ago. However, it is an opportunity to bring your family to the park for an evening and spend time with your brothers and sisters in Christ. Unless plans change, let's meet at Southwinds Park at 6:30pm on the 3rd to enjoy an evening together.

As we all celebrate the birthday of our country on the 4th, feel free to celebrate it with your church family around the Huber pool! Swim time begins at 4:00pm with dinner soon to follow. We will provide pork barbeque sandwiches and drinks. Please bring a side dish, lawn chairs for your family and the swimming essentials. We are planning some yard games, water games and a photo booth for you all to enjoy!

Around dusk, many of us head to the church lot to watch the Chatham firework display. Over the years, several within our body have enjoyed serving the visitors using CCC to watch the fireworks by offering them root beer floats. If you would like to help us make and deliver root beer floats to our guests this year, please let me know.

During our Junior Worship time on Sunday, we try our best to mirror what is going on in the larger congregation. Meaning, we have prayer, a lesson, the Lord's Supper and we feed the pig to collect an offering for one of our overseas missions. In combining the giving in Junior Worship with the money given during VBS for missions, there was $256.52 when we emptied the pig! Thank you kids! The money will be sent to the Haitian Christian Mission to support their efforts in bringing the gospel to an area that is in such need.
