

III. REMEMBERING THE REEF

7/12/20

Mark 14:22-25

Whether Judas was still there when the _____ _____ was instituted or not, we can't be sure.

While they were eating Jesus took some _____ and blessed it, and said "Take it; this is My
_____."

As the bread of life, Jesus is the _____
of life and the _____ of eternal life.

He then took a _____ and said, "This is My
_____ of the covenant which is poured out for many."

If we accept the _____ made possible through His blood, and the _____ made possible through His body, we can look forward to _____ with Him in the kingdom of God.

Even a reef who has been responsible for the shipwreck of others can be _____, if he'll let Jesus _____ his hardened and calcified heart.

THE HIDDEN REEF

Mark 14:12-25

Introduction:

The epistle of Jude paints a picture of ungodly men who had crept into the church unnoticed as hidden _____ in their love feasts.

The first hidden reef in a love feast associated with the Lord's Supper, however, was _____.

I. AVOIDING THE REEF

Mark 14:12-16

_____ is the most important feast in Judaism.

Exodus 12:1-14

The Passover was followed by a seven-day Feast of _____ Bread.

It was apparently _____ morning when the disciples asked Jesus where He wanted them to prepare for the Passover.

They knew they would be celebrating it in _____, but the _____ location was unknown to them.

Jesus had most likely _____ the arrangements Himself.

Judas was seeking an _____ time to betray Jesus, and this would have been that.

II. EXPOSING THE REEF

Mark 14:27-21

John gives us other _____ about this meal and records the extensive _____ that took place between Jesus and the disciples.

Mark seems to focus on the _____ more than anything else.

The first words at dinner that Mark records are “Truly I say to you that one of you will _____ Me.”

The disciples were _____ and _____.

Eleven of them asked, “Surely not I?” with a _____ heart.

_____ knew what he was going to do, and so did _____.

Judas would be fulfilling _____ by betraying Jesus, but he would still be held _____ for it if he did.

Jesus was giving Judas the opportunity to _____ his mind, warning him of the _____ of following through on his plan.

Jesus wanted the disciples to know there was a reef hidden in their feast so it wouldn't shipwreck their _____.