

III. SPEECHLESS...FOR A TIME

8/23/20

Howard Carter was _____ when he first saw the treasure.

Mark 16:8

The women were in _____.

The discovery in Jesus' tomb has radically _____ the lives of billions of people.

The treasure in King Tut's tomb was for _____ sake.

All that took place in Jesus' tomb was for _____ sake.

If you're willing to _____ the risen Savior the greatest treasure to ever come out of a tomb can be yours.

THE TOMB WAS EMPTY

Mark 16:1-8

Introduction:

The Egyptian mummification process took _____ days to complete.

Jesus' body was wrapped with linen and _____ lbs. of spices by Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus.

The women still wanted to _____ Jesus' body after two days in the tomb.

Mark 16:1-4

The women were concerned about moving the _____ that sealed the tomb.

I. DISCOVERIES IN THE TOMB

Howard Carter was afraid the treasure in King Tut's tomb had been _____.

Mary Magdalene thought someone had _____ the body of Jesus.

Inside four shrines, a stone sarcophagus, and three coffins was the _____ of King Tut.

Mark 16:5

All that remained where Jesus had been laid were the linen _____.

Then two _____ appeared in the tomb.

II. MESSAGES FROM THE TOMB

Much information of _____ value was discovered in King Tut's tomb.

Nothing compares with the _____ the women received from an angel in Jesus' tomb.

Mark 16:6-7

They were definitely in the right _____.

Jesus had risen _____!

Jesus had broken the bondage of _____.

_____ was singled out to be told personally.

The gospel message isn't just for churches, it's for
_____.

Jesus had _____ them what He was going to do.

People lost faith in Akhenaton's claim to divinity when he _____.

Jesus' _____ proved Him to be the Son of God.