

It's not easy to get the veils of our _____ glory out of the way so we can openly reflect the unfading glory of _____.

FROM GLORY TO GLORY

II Corinthians 3:7-18

Introduction:

Anyone who _____ their shortcomings in order to make themselves look like a good Christian _____ the glory of Christ.

Do you do what you do for Christ because you feel you _____ to, or because you _____ to?

III. TRANSFORMED INTO GLORY

II Corinthians 3:17-18

The son who was told he _____ to wash the car and mow the grass wasn't free to just do it out of _____ any longer.

As we stand before Christ unveiled we are _____ into His image.

That's one of the major differences between the _____ and the _____ covenant.

The more we _____ His glory, the more His glory is _____ in our lives.

We don't have to be _____ to be living under the old covenant.

Let Him transform you into His _____, and enter into a covenant with Him that will enable you to live a life that truly does bring _____ to His name.

I. SURPASSING OLD GLORY

II Corinthians 3:7-11

The old covenant had _____ and it was given in a _____ fashion.

Exodus 19:16-20, 24:15-18

The reason the glory of the old covenant was surpassed was because it was a ministry of _____.

It _____ us by holding up the unachievable and _____ that we achieve it.

The ultimate purpose for the _____ was to make us see how desperately we needed _____.

The new covenant is a covenant whereby a man is made _____ with God through the _____ of another.

Still, many Christians feel _____ all the time, constantly striving to make themselves _____ to God.

_____ allows me to thank God for loving me in spite of the fact that I'll _____ measure up.

There is a glory in doing things for God, but it is a _____ glory.

The new covenant has a glory that never fades, for it is the glory of _____ within me.

II. PREACHING NEW GLORY

II Corinthians 3:12-16

Moses didn't want the people to see that his glory was _____.

_____ of the new covenant have nothing to _____ because they don't have to appear to be something they are not.