

III. PREACH JESUS CHRIST AS LORD

10/18/20

II Corinthians 4:5-6

Paul wasn't out to make a _____ for himself,
he was simply a _____ of Christ.

The "catch" in the new covenant is that you become a _____ to Jesus Christ.

If _____ isn't the Lord of our life,
_____ is; there is no _____ alternative.

It's not our job to _____ people that they are already serving the devil, or that they should become the slave of Christ; only the _____ _____ can do that.

If we'll just keep _____ Christ as Lord, God may take the blinders off someone to whom we are _____.

DON'T LOSE HEART

II Corinthians 4:1-6

Introduction:

The new _____ God wants to make with us certainly does seem too _____ to be true.

It can get very _____ trying to give away something that people are _____ to accept.

There were times when Paul became very
_____, but he never gave up,
he never _____.

He understood the forces at work in _____ transactions, and he understood his _____.

Like _____, Paul had been commissioned to speak the word of God.

Ezekiel 2:1-7, 3:8-11, Acts 9:15-16

I. SET FORTH THE TRUTH PLAINLY

II Corinthians 4:1-2

Paul's ministry was not of _____, it was of _____.

He knew that if he'd just faithfully do what _____ wanted him to do, God would get done what He _____ done through him.

That relieved Paul from the pressure to get _____.

He could just tell the _____, and leave it at that.

All we do is tell people honestly and openly what God has _____ in His word, and let _____ take it from there.

That doesn't guarantee they will _____ it, but that's not our _____.

II. REALIZE SOME CANNOT SEE THE LIGHT

II Corinthians 4:3-4

Others may not see the truthfulness of what we say because they have been _____.

We must never forget that we are in the midst of spiritual _____.

_____ is doing everything he can to keep others from seeing the value of what's being offered.

As _____ of this world, he usually uses the _____ of this world to blind us.

Paul didn't take it _____ when people _____ the offer that God was making to them through him.
