

III. CHECK OUT HIS SOURCES

5/2/21

Galatians 1:6b-24

After God called him, Paul didn't ask anyone _____ he should preach.

While alone in the desert, _____ personally instructed him.

Paul wasn't feeding the Galatians _____ information, the gospel he was preaching came directly from the _____ source.

Preachers should get their _____ from the Bible.

You have to be _____ who you listen to.

CHECKING OUT THE PREACHER

Galatians 1:10-24

Introduction:

If any man should preach to you a gospel contrary to that which we have preached to you, let him be _____.

Galatians 1:6-9

That's not a _____ thing to say, but then again Paul wasn't trying to please _____.

Galatians 1:10

The gospel that Paul delivered to the Galatians was not something that could be _____ by anyone.

But how did they know they had been told the _____?

Paul has to _____ that question before they will _____ what he has to say about grace.

Galatians 1:11-12

Paul begins by stating that the gospel he preached came directly from _____.

So how could the Galatians, and how can we, _____ whether or not the preacher is telling us the truth?

I. CHECK OUT HIS LIFE

Galatians 1:13-14

Paul didn't try to _____ anything about his life.

He openly shares with them the _____ and the _____ of his past.

It's vitally important that you have confidence in the _____ of anyone who would offer to teach you things of _____ significance.

II. CHECK OUT HIS CALL

Galatians 1:15-16a

God _____ Paul, and set him apart to preach the gospel to Gentiles.

God had set him apart for ministry even before he was _____, as He had done Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 1:5

God still calls men into the _____ today.
(Ephesians 4:1-16)

Being in the ministry should not be a career _____, but something the preacher felt _____ to do.

You may be able to discern a preacher's call by what _____ him.