

III. THE EXAMPLE OF THE FOOT WASHER

11/20/22

John 13:12-17

While they didn't understand the _____ of Jesus' action, the disciples could learn from His example.

If our _____ was willing to wash feet, we must do _____.

Jesus wasn't making foot washing an _____ for the church.

If we would be _____ by God, however, we must be willing to _____ one another.

Before we can serve with a pure heart, we must be _____ by the Foot Washer.

THE FOOT WASHER

John 13:1-17

Introduction:

While not actually used as a title for Jesus John certainly presents our Lord as the _____.

I. THE HEART OF THE FOOT WASHER

John 13:1-4

Jesus knew that the hour had come for His _____.

He was willing to die for His own because of His great _____.

He earnestly desired to eat the _____ meal with His disciples before going to the cross.

Even though He knew _____ would betray Him that same night, Jesus included him in the Last Supper.

Knowing that _____ was behind Judas' activities didn't excuse him, but it did make it easier to _____.

Jesus knew He had the _____ and _____ to do anything.

He knew _____ He was and _____ He was going.

He was therefore _____ to do whatever needed to be done.

A dispute arose among the disciples as to which one of them was the _____.

Jesus willingly took on the role of _____.

II. THE WORK OF THE FOOT WASHER

John 13:5-11

Apparently no one said anything as Jesus began _____ the disciples' feet.

A question was raised, however, when Jesus got to _____.

Jesus said Peter would one day _____ what He was doing.

When Peter objected, Jesus said it was _____ that he be _____.

By submitting to having his _____ washed, Peter acknowledged his need to be _____ by Jesus.

Today we acknowledge our need to be cleansed by submitting to _____.