

His placard was written in _____
_____ and _____ so all could read it.

A PUBLIC EXECUTION

John 19:17-22

Introduction:

The chief priests strenuously _____ to what Pilate had written.

Most of us would not want to witness an
_____.

While he had given in to their demands on the _____ issue, he held fast on this _____ one.

There is, however, _____ that we must keep fresh in our minds.

He responded “What I have _____ I have written.”

I. THE PLACE

John 19:17

Little did he know that _____ had actually written the script.

As Jesus was led through the streets of Jerusalem,
He was no man’s _____.

There’s _____ at the cross for you.

Just as Isaac carried the wood for his own sacrifice,
so Jesus carried His own _____.

He was led to a place called “the Place of a _____.”

It was reserved for _____ and the most notorious _____.

While we can't be sure of its _____, we do know it was a place of _____.

Being crucified between two criminals fulfilled the _____ that Jesus would be numbered with the transgressors. (Isaiah 53:12)

II. THE METHOD

John 19:18

Jesus had said He would be _____, and the Psalmist wrote that His hands and feet would be _____.
(John 12:32 & 33, Psalm 22:16)

“He humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a _____.”
(Philippians 2:8)

The gospel writers do not dwell on the _____ of the crucifixion.

III. THE INSCRIPTION

John 19:19-22

It was customary for a man's _____ and _____ to be posted on his cross.

Everyone knew it was the means to a horribly _____ and _____ death.

Jesus' placard gave no crime, it merely stated that He was the _____ of Jews.